Nourish Farms, Inc.

Vision
To help create a healthy community through food security.

Mission
By providing equitable access to hands-on education and connections to local, sustainable food systems, Nourish empowers the community to make wholesome food choices.

Position: Urban Farm Intern

Educational Urban Farm (1/4 acre): 1607 Geele Ave. Sheboygan, WI

Office: 1332 S 13th Street, Sheboygan, WI

Phone: 920-627-4769

Nourish Farms Incorporated is a non-profit organization that educates the community on sustainable growing practices and healthy eating habits. To be used as a part of this education, Nourish is developing an urban farm at the RCS Community Gardens. Food grown on the land will be distributed to South High School’s Culinary Program, RCS Empowers classes and lunch program, Sheboygan Area School District lunch program, Nourish programs, and other non-profit organizations in the community.

Nourish is seeking an urban farm intern to assist the urban farm managers in the development and maintenance of the Educational Urban Farm. This is an unpaid position with a flexible schedule and much potential to learn new information and gain gardening/farming skills.

Essential Functions

Maintain garden beds: planting, mulching, weeding, and watering. Other urban farm tasks as needed.

Skills Knowledge Ability

- Passion for the sustainable agriculture movement including: sustainable food systems, nutrition education, and food security
- Good communication, reliable and courteous communication
- Ability to Lift 50 pounds
- Self-motivator
- Reliable
- Attention to detail
- Team player

If interested, please send a cover letter and resume to one of our Urban Farm Managers

Jonathan Ribich, jon@nourishfarms.org

Or

Jenny Conrardy, jenny@nourishfarms.org

Created June 2015