24 Hours of Art and Theater is a workshop-style event open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors in your school who are interested in the visual arts and theater. Each participating area school is invited to send 3 students to each activity. These students will be nominated by the Art and Theater instructors at their respective high schools. In the event of a cancellation or an inability for a school to fill their slots by January 1, additional spots may be allocated to other interested students. This will be an annual program, if you do not get in this year please try again.

The selected students will spend two intensive 12-hour periods preparing their plays and prints, on Friday and Saturday February 20 and 21. Students working in the visual arts, under the direction of Professor Berel Lutsky, will produce work in intaglio, letterpress and monotype to produce prints, which will be shown in our Founders Hall Art Gallery until March 6. Students working in theater, under the direction of Professor Ray Pritchard, will participate in a unique and challenging “24 Hour Theatre” experience, with opportunities to write, produce, direct and perform in a production of original short plays on Saturday, February 21, which will be open to the public.

Students chosen to participate must commit to attending both days from 8:00AM to 6:00PM. Lunch and dinner will be provided along with an event T-shirt courtesy of the UW-Manitowoc Foundation and several local sponsors.

Parents, friends, and our community are invited to attend the theater performance followed by the art gallery opening and hors d’oeuvres reception Saturday evening.
